Director's Vision by: Lisa Dunn

My vision for Les Misérables centers the human story within an epic, ever moving world. A revolve, clocks, and shifting colour will make time and consequence visible, while a modular, resource conscious set keeps the stage alive. Movement and choreography will be grounded, intentional, and ensemble driven, rooted in physical storytelling and military inspired formations, designed to grow organically from and support the score so that music, movement, and storytelling feel fully integrated.
